

Syrtos Hassapikos

griechisch

The musical score is written in 2/4 time and consists of several systems of staves. The parts are labeled as follows:

- instr.: Instrumental parts, primarily for guitar, featuring rhythmic patterns and melodic lines with various ornaments (trills, grace notes).
- v: Vocal part, which is mostly silent, with a few notes appearing in the second system.
- Chords: Chord symbols are placed above the instrumental staves, including Am, Em, C, and G.

The score includes a da capo instruction at the end of the main section. The Nachspiel (Coda) section follows, featuring:

- instr.: Instrumental parts with first and second endings.
- Tr: Trumpet part with a simple melodic line.
- instr.: Instrumental parts with first and second endings.

Chord symbols in the coda include C, Am, G, and Em.
